Who are the Nobles of the earth-The true Aristocrats -Who need not bow their heads to Lords, Nor doff to Kings their trats! Who are they, but the Men of Toll,

The mighty and the free, Whose hearts and hands subdue the earth. And compass all the seat

Who are they, but the Men of Tort Who cleave the forests down, And paint smid the wilderness The hamier and the town! Who fight the battles, hear the stars, And give the world its crown Of name, and fame, and history,

These chain to grad at herylder, And score the knighting rod . Their cost of arms are notice leads; Their peer ge is from Good They take not from ancestral graves The glory of their name. Hot win, as east their fathers won, The honel wreath of Fame,

And pemp of old renown'
